

One Word Substation of English words

One word Substitution is a very important part of the English vocabulary. It simply means that a sentence has the meaning of that very one word and can be used with a single substitute word. It requires a strong vocabulary to solve such types of questions. Questions based on one word substitution are often asked in various competitive exams. Here, some One Word Substitutions are given.

A state of lawlessness

(Anarchy)

Government by the nobles
(Aristocracy)

Government of one person
(Autocracy)

One who can't pay off one's debt
(Bankrupt)

One who is fond of fighting
(Bellicose)

The act of having two wives at a time
(Bigamy)

In two languages
(Bilingual)

Easily breakable
(Brittle)

Living in the same period of history
(Contemporary)

One who is not easily pleased
(Fastidious)

That can't be heard
(Inaudible)

One who can't be corrected
(Incorrigible)

That can't be conquered
(Invincible)

That can't be avoided
(Inevitable)

A person who is not able to pay his debt
(Insolvent)

One who knows many languages
(Linguist)

One who hates human beings

(Misanthrope)

Undue favour to relatives
(Nepotism)

He who is all powerful
(Omnipotent)

One who is present everywhere
(Omnipresent)

One who is all-knowing
(Omniscient)

A man of correct and accepted opinions
(Orthodox)

One who loves and serves human beings
(Philanthropist)

A vote of the people for the choice of government
(Plebiscite)

A speech to oneself
(Soliloquy)

Having no fixed house
(Vagabond)

---

<https://www.seekergk.com/english-vocabulary-cide-ending-words/>