

Pakistan is a rich country but poor in management

Outline -

Pakistan is not a poor country but poor in management

1. Introduction

2. Potentials of Pakistan which make Pakistan not a poor country.

- i. Pakistan the land of four powerful ethnic groups - a challenge to rivals
- ii. Pakistan rich in natural and mineral resources
- iii. Pakistan the fertile land - a economic potential to export
- iv. Pakistan the gateway to Central Asia
- v. CPEC- the corridor to Middle East
- vi. Pakistan the neighbor of two largest markets of Asia
- vii. Some world's largest glacier are in Pakistan
- viii. Northern Area of Pakistan is the tourist place
- ix. Young population is a great resource of Pakistan
- x. Powerful army is a great challenge to adversaries
- xi. Deepest sea routes are in Pakistan
- xii. Pakistan is the only Muslim Atomic country

3. Poor management of Pakistan that makes Pakistan poor.

- i. Bad Governance
- ii. Political Instability
- iii. Lack of Accountability
- iv. Absence of Rule of Law
- v. Lack of far-sighted Financial policies
- vi. Lack of literacy and technical education
- vii. Lack of true leadership to lead Pakistan
- viii. Flawed Foreign Policy to counter national interests worldwide.
- ix. Lack of independent judiciary
- x. Lack of separation of power
- xi. Lack of land and agricultural Reforms
- xii. Lack of water reserves to conserve water.
- xiii. Lack of long-term energy conservation and production policies

4. Conclusion